Dear Bus:

Thank you for your letter of 23 October 1967 inviting our participation in SIGMA-67 war game. We have found these games most interesting, instructive and helpful to our thinking in the past and will be glad to participate in this one. Unfortunately, I am not able to participate and Vice Admiral Taylor's schedule precludes his acting in my place.

I will, however, be able to make available as one of our senior participants an officer from the Board of National Estimates, [redacted] who is quite experienced and expert in matters pertaining to the theme of this particular game. In addition, Mr. George Carver, who is my Special Assistant for Vietnamese Affairs and one of my close advisors, will be able to serve as the second senior CIA player.

25X1

The names of the CIA Action-level and control nominees will be forwarded to the Joint War Games Agency as requested.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard Helms

23 October 1967

Dear Dick:

I would like to invite you to join me as a participant in SIGMA-67, a senior-level politico-military game dealing with the conflict in Southeast Asia. It will be conducted in Pentagon facilities of the Joint War Games Agency during late November - early December 1967, and as usual, knowledgeable and responsible officials from interested departments and commands will participate.

In addition, I hope that you will provide your normal fine complement of key people to serve on both senior and action-level teams. The desired numbers of participants are indicated in the administrative attachment which also contains detailed information regarding the game for use by your point of contact.

Senior meetings will be held from 1400 to 1530 hours on 28 November, 30 November and 5 December and a final critique will be conducted from 1400 to 1600 hours, 7 December 1967. In the event you are unable to attend, I hope you will designate Admiral Taylor to serve as the senior CIA representative.

The Joint War Games Agency is prepared, at your convenience, to brief you on the purposes and scope of SIGMA-67.

Sincerely,

Bues

EARLE G. WHEELER
